

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Margaret O'Neill and Michaela Schrage-Früh Introduction: Women and Ageing in Irish Writing, Drama and Film	1
Margaret Mills Harper The Problem of Crazy Jane	13
Katarzyna Ostalska 'What will I do / When I am too old / for such love songs?': Desire and Midlife Sexuality in Contemporary Irish Women's Poetry	31
Eileen Casey The Ageing Woman: From Grave (Bone) to Cradle (Blossom)	57
Michaela Schrage-Früh Reimagining the Fourth Age: The Ageing Mother in the Poetry of Mary Dorcey and Paul Durcan	77
Brenda O'Connell Samuel Beckett's 'Hysterical Old Hags': The Sexual Politics of Female Ageing in All That Fall and Not I	95
Mária Kurdi 'Old women interfere with my sense of myself': Attitudes to Female Age and Ageing in the Midlands Trilogy and Marble by Marina Carr	113
Anne Fogarty 'Someone whose kindness did not matter': Femininity and Ageing in Anne Enright's The Green Road	131
Elke D'hoker Experiences of Ageing in Short Stories by Irish Women Writers	145
Margaret O'Neill Kate O'Brien: A Portrait of the Author in Older Age	161
Luz Mar González-Arias Ageing Iconography: Non-normative Representations of the Irish Maternal Body	175
Contributors	193