

Contents

Literature

Aída Díaz Bild Smile, by Roddy Doyle: The ‘Magic’ of Art	1
Mehdi Ghassemi Writing, Land, Sea and Sand: The Littoral in John Banville’s The Sea	19
Ian Hickey The Haunted Bog and the Poetry of Seamus Heaney	35
Robert Finnigan Arthur O’Shaughnessy: An Anglo-Irish Poet?	55
Marine Galiné [...] the cry of a woman keening. It came from the bog’: (Re)presentations of the Bog in Nineteenth-Century Irish Gothic Fiction	75
Verónica Membrive Beyond Balcony of Europe : Aidan Higgins’s Knowing Look at Spain in the 1960s and 1970s	93
Daniel Hengel Rewriting Empire and Nationhood: The Phantasmagorical Promise of James Joyce’s Ulysses	111
Politics, History, Sociology, Cultural Studies
Tom Walsh Re-animating the Past: An Irish Animation History	133
Kayla Rose Shifting Values and Changing Tastes: Illuminating Irish Identity through Commemorative Material Culture and Civic Ceremony	151
Catherine Bouyoux Barthélémy The Role of Minor Political Parties in the Republic of Ireland	167
Thomas Earls FitzGerald ‘...the Kilorglin town crowd were no good’: The Characterisation of Civilians, during the Revolutionary Period, in IRA Testimony: A Kerry Case Study	185
Reviews	203
Contributors	221